County presents proposed budget with 13% tax hike

by Jay Kerr-Wilson

County council has released its preliminary budget figures which call for a 13 per cent increase in the county's portion of property taxes.

As part of council's new, open process, copies of the draft budget are available at the 10 municipal offices in the county for public review. During the next month, the county has scheduled a series of open meetings to deal with the budget and the public will be invited to participate.

In the proposed budget, the county expects to spend $3.3 million in 1992, an increase of 15.5 per cent over last year. Of that amount, $2.55 million will be raised through property taxes.

In general, the county has taken a "hold the line" approach to spending, with very few dramatic increases and very few drastic cuts.

One of the greatest factors which led to last year's 35 per cent increase in the county levy was the cost of social services, which is a provincially-mandated program. The proposed budget for 1992 calls for a 53 per cent increase in the social service budget. In 1991 the county increased the social service budget by 65 per cent, but record welfare payments still resulted in a $60,000 deficit.

The other department for which proposed spending has increased is the county roads department, where the county expects to spend 25 per cent more.

Because of the method of determining grants from the provincial transportation ministry, the county can attract much larger transfer payments by increasing its spending on construction. According to the roads' budget,

New school option outlined

by Jay Kerr-Wilson

Two Minden residents have prepared a plan to address the over-crowding at local elementary schools which will cost $1.6 million less than the school board's current proposal.

Brian Kernohan and Doug Campbell presented their idea at last Wednesday's public meeting which was called by Minden council to discuss the school accommodation issue.

The proposal suggested by Kernohan and Campbell would see 16 classrooms added to Archie Stouffer and 12 additional classrooms added to J.D. Hodgson Elementary School in Haliburton village, at a cost of $6 million.

The school board has approved a $7.6 million plan to add eight classrooms to Archie Stouffer, build a new Kindergarten to Grade 6 school in Haliburton village and turn J.D. Hodgson into a junior high school for the entire county.

The school board's decision, which was approved last October, has come under fire from Minden residents. Most of the critics oppose the idea of busing Grade 7 and 8 students from Minden to the junior high school in Haliburton.

Minden council organized the public meeting at the community centre to let local residents present their concerns to the three trustees which represent Anson, Hindon and Minden.

Trustees Mary Anne Wilson and Wendy Ladurantaye attended the meeting. The third trustee, Wally Bunn, could not attend because he was away on school board business. During the vote to approve the board's plan, Wilson opposed the motion, Bunn supported it and Ladurantaye abstained from the vote.

News briefs

Murder charge laid for 1989 drowning

A Huntsville man has been charged with murder in connection with a 1989 drowning death of a teenager on Fletcher Lake.

On June 5, 1989, officers from the Minden OPP detachment investigated the drowning of 15-year-old Jason William Lucyk, from Dwight.

At the time of the incident, police were told that Lucyk, who was in the company of another teenage boy, had drowned after falling out of a small boat. His body was not recovered until June 29.

Police began investigating the incident as a homicide after receiving new information that Lucyk's death might not have been accidental.

John Patrick McFadyen, 21, from the Huntsville area, has been charged with the second degree murder of Lucyk. McFadyen has been remanded in custody until a court appearance March 9.

Lutterworth council gets 4% pay raise

Lutterworth councillors have given themselves a four per cent pay raise.

At last week's meeting, council passed a by-law setting the rates of remuneration for members of council. After the new rates come into effect Reeve Cam Ecclestone will receive an annual stipend of $5,866; Deputy-Reeve Jim McMahon will receive $5,380 and councillors Bill Valentine, Lisa Mercer and Maurice Boyd will each receive $4,884.

Council also passed a by-law which gives municipal employees a four per cent increase in wages for 1992.

BC resident looks for local Samaritan

Myrna Spratt is trying to find a good Samaritan who lives in Minden.

Spratt, a resident of Vancouver, B.C., lost her purse in Stanley Park on Boxing Day.

Her purse was recovered and she thought the name and address of the person who returned her purse was Marlene Armsden of RR#2 Minden, but a letter she sent to Minden in that name was returned.

In an effort to reach her benefactor, Spratt has taken out a classified ad in this week's Times asking for the woman who found her purse to get in contact with her.

If you are the person Spratt is seeking, or know to whom she is referring, send a letter to 6145 Collingwood St., Vancouver V6N 1T5 or call collect (604) 261-2433.

Owner of Steeles dump fights to use his land

Lutterworth council promises to find a solution

by Jay Kerr-Wilson

The owner of a former Lutterworth land-fill site is still fighting for the right to use some of the 200-acres of property he owns in the township.

Joe Sammut, who owns the land where the Steeles land-fill site is located, attended last Thursday's council and asked council to approve his application for severances across the road from the land-fill.

Sammut leased five acres of property to the municipality in 1972 for use as a land-fill site at an annual rent of $300. The lease expired in 1980 and Sammut and Lutterworth renewed the agreement at double the rent.

But in 1989, Sammut discovered that his entire 200-acre property had been designated as waste disposal site by the environment ministry because the original five-acre site had never been surveyed or fenced, which were the municipality's responsibility under the leasing agreement.

Because of this designation, Sammut was prevented from developing any of his property. In June of 1990, he took matters into his own hands and closed access to the land-fill site, claiming the township had broken their agreement to fence the site.

After Sammut barred access to the dump, council agreed to close the site and arranged to have a hydrological study carried out to see if leachate from the site was contaminating the water table.

Although the Steeles dump has not been in use for two years and the study has shown that the leachate is not threatening the rest of Sammut's property, he has still not been given permission to develop any of the 200 acres he owns.

At last Thursday's meeting, Sammut became very angry and demanded to know why the restrictions haven't been lifted from his land.

Calling the township's actions during the last 20 years "a blatant rape act", Sammut said he's been told by the ministry that it is up to the municipality to release the rest of the property for development.

"I want the rest of my land cleared," he said. "What are you people afraid of?"

However council said it is getting a very different story from the environment ministry. Councillor Lisa Mercer told Sammut that the ministry has advised the township's lawyer not to release the land.

Reeve Cam Ecclestone asked for one month to look into the issue and reassured Sammut that council wants to get the issue straightened out.

"This is a new council and we're sincerely interested in getting this cleared up," he said. "You have my assurance we will get this cleared up."

Ecclestone said a meeting involving the ministry, Sammut and the municipality will be set up to resolve the issue. With everyone in the same room at the same time, Ecclestone said there will be no misunderstanding about the ministry's position with regard to Sammut's property.

CANTEL APPROVED AGENT

Option for school plan would save $1.6 million

Residents suggest expansion of Archie Stouffer Elementary School to accommodate junior high students from west half of county

In opening the meeting, Reeve Bern Berry asked the audience of about 100 people to present constructive concerns and viable options and not let the meeting turn into a shouting match.

In a brief address, Ladurantaye explained that neither herself nor Wilson could speak on behalf of the board at the meeting. She said that under the Education Act, once a motion has been passed by the board all the trustees have to publicly support that decision regardless of how they voted.

Wilson explained the four options the board considered to relieve the overcrowding of local schools.

The board approved Option Four, the least expensive, which calls for the immediate construction of an addition to Archie Stouffer consisting of eight classes, a double gymnasium and the conversion of the existing gym to a library. The board would also seek provincial funding to build a new school in Haliburton village and turn J.D. Hodgson into a junior high school.

Campbell and Kernohan were the first delegation to address the meeting and began the presentation by dealing with how the student population is distributed throughout the county.

In discussions with school board officials, Campbell said he realized the board's decision had not been based on the demographic information he would have expected. He presented the audience with a population study of the county which identifies where in the county the students are located. Campbell and Kernohan have also compiled data on school enrolment trends for the past 25 years and average annual increases in the county's population.

One of the reasons given by the school board for locating the junior high school in Haliburton is the village's central location in the county.

But Kernohan said that if all the students in the county were bused to Haliburton, the average distance would be 23.64 kilometers, and if all the students were bused to Minden, the average distance would be 23.74 kilometers.

"The town of Minden is within the length of a football field of being as centrally-located as the town of Haliburton," said Kernohan.

Their proposal, which they call Option Five, would have elementary and junior high school students from the western half of the county attend Archie Stouffer, and elementary and junior high school students from the eastern half of the county attend J.D. Hodgson.

This would eliminate the need, and cost, of busing students from the Minden area to Haliburton until Grade 10, when they would begin attending the High School.

And by keeping Grade 9 students from the western half of the county in Minden, immediate relief would be provided to the student load at the high school.

Kernohan also suggested that by dropping optional plans for a lunchroom and two shops from the Archie Stouffer addition and reducing the gym space from two full gymnasiums to two smaller rooms which could be joined together, the cost of Option Five could be reduced to $5.175 million. This is almost $2.5 million cheaper than the option chosen by the board.

After Kernohan and Campbell's presentation, Home and School Associating president Beth Browning spoke and said the association supports, in principle, Option Five as a viable alternative and requests the board to study the new proposal as well as other options.

Gord Samells expressed concern about the administrative costs of building a new school in the county and the creation of a new "hierarchy" of principal, department heads, teachers, support and custodial staff. He also said the new school would be less than the optimum size for providing full course options.

Gary Kenney said the accommodation plan should be split into two distinct issues; The immediate need to provide more classroom space, and the philosophical reorganization of the school system to create a junior high school.

He also suggested the board take a "daring approach" and use local expertise to build any new schools, instead of going to outside contractors, to keep the money in the county as much as possible.

Several other people expressed concerns about the extra busing that would be involved if the board's option is implemented and the lack of public consultation that took place before the decision was made.

Wilson and Ladurantaye were provided with written copies of the presentations made at the meeting and also took notes of the comments made by people in attendance. They will be presenting this information to the other trustees at the board's meeting this Tuesday.

Because they did not vote in favour of the accommodation plan, neither of the two trustees can have the decision re-opened but any of the trustees who supported the initial decision can suggest a review.

Chamber presents budget to county council

by Jay Kerr-Wilson

The Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce has submitted its budget proposal to county council, asking the county to contribute $52,000 toward the base operating deficit.

Three members of the chamber's board of directors attended last Wednesday's council meeting and presented its project budget for 1992.

Anne Martino, the chamber's treasurer and chairman of the budget committee, opened the discussion by saying that the current economic recession has affected the tourism industry.

"The chamber recognizes that it must not only survive, it must survive and be in a position to help the tourism industry recover," said

Martino. But she said the chamber also realizes the need to exercise restraint and operate as efficiently as possible.

Brian Dean, chairman of the marketing committee, told council that his committee began working on its budget in December and came up with an initial figure of $185,000 as the amount needed to market Haliburton County.

Realizing this amount was "way over the line" Dean said the committee slashed more than $120,000 from the budget to come up with a $54,850 marketing plan.

The chamber has developed an eight-point marketing strategy, working within its limited budget. The plan includes:

- Maintaining the 1-800 telephone line into the chamber office on Highway 35;

- Buying advertising space in the Travel section of the Toronto Star and running classified ads in weekly newspapers across the province;

- Contracting out the production of the Destination Lure Guide, which lost money in 1990 and was not produced in 1991;

- Advertising on the Kitchener television station, in conjunction with six other local advertisers, throughout the summer at a cost of $1,000

- Producing a single page hand-out to give to visitors to the county;

- Joining the Central Ontario Tourist Association (COTA). The cost of the membership has been reduced to $2,000 from $4,000 and the association will provide two travel counsellors to the county for the summer;

- Attending the Sportsmen Show in March 1992 and 1993 and the Toronto Home and Leisure Show in April. The chamber will not be setting up a booth at the Ottawa trade show this year.

- Training the employees of local businesses to be more familiar with the geography of the county and sites of interest to help provide tourists with information.

"We have to keep in mind that we are losing our market share in tourism and, with a budget this size, we will continue to lose our market share," Dean told the councillors.

He said the past practice of marketing Haliburton based on its clean air and clean water isn't working and the county has to target new markets. He suggested that a five-year plan be developed and emphasis placed on American and European tourists.

"We have to go after a very different market and you people have to be ready to help us," he said. "It won't cost that much with your cooperation."

With the county "smothering and drowning" in welfare costs, Dean said the county has to find ways to get people back to work, and that won't be possible without getting Haliburton's tourist industry off its knees. "It's the only way to end the death spiral we're in."

Brian Moore presented council with the proposed budget figures for 1992. The chamber hopes to bring in $36,000 on the revenue side from membership fees, and commission from the group insurance plan.

That revenue will cover the administrative costs of chamber operations, leaving a $52,500 deficit.

Moore also explained that the chamber is seeking $30,000 in funding for "special items." The first is a $25,000 grant to produce a brochure about the county. There is a possibility that the county, on behalf of the chamber, can apply for a Tourism Ontario grant to cover the cost of producing the brochure.

Unless the county is successful in obtaining the grant, Moore said the chamber will drop its plans for the brochure, so the county will not have to provide any money from its own coffers. "It's a simple flow through, we will not proceed unless we have the money in

County approves plan to complete spraying

by Jay Kerr-Wilson

Haliburton County Council has approved a plan to proceed with the gypsy moth spray program for 1992, despite the withdrawal of provincial funding.

At last Wednesday's meeting, councillors passed a resolution to proceed with the spraying by hiring a private contractor to do the work.

Chief Administrator Gary McKnight told council that Andy Paul, the county's gypsy moth coordinator, has gone through the applications and put together spray blocks. McKnight said the program will be paid for by participating landowners and will not require any county funding.

Lutterworth Deputy-Reeve Jim McMahon, who chairs the county's forest health committee, said it would be wrong for the county to abandon the spray program when people have already applied.

"This project has been taken on by the county and we have an obligation to follow through this year," he said.

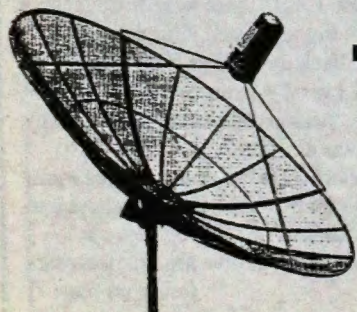

He urged council to approve the program so the necessary arrangements can be made. "The longer we wait, we may not get any aircraft to do the spraying."

The Ministry of Natural Resources announced it was pulling out of the spray program due to budget restraints.

The spray program is being replaced with a forest health information program and municipalities will receive funding to hire a part-time information office.

The county's administrative costs of the spray program will continue to be paid by the province until June, at which time the new information plan will take over.

Editorial

When opposition to the school board's accommodation plan first surfaced, Director of Education Brad Saunders invited people to come up with viable alternatives.

Brian Kernohan and Doug Campbell have done that, and more.

Much of the criticism of the option chosen by the trustees is from Minden residents who don't want to see their children bused to Haliburton for Grades 7 and 8.

Had someone developed a plan which kept these students near their homes without a significant increase in construction costs, that alone would be worthy of the board's consideration.

But Kernohan and Campbell, after exhaustive research and planning, have presented an option which not only satisfies the concerns of Minden parents, it would also cut costs by $1.6 million.

In these economic times, and in an atmosphere of restricted provincial funding, such a drastic reduction in costs should make the trustees stand up and take notice.

And the board should not limit itself to just adding the new option to the bottom of the existing list, but should re-examine the entire issue using all relevant information to see if there are other viable alternatives available.

Minden council deserves credit for hosting last week's public meeting which gave residents an opportunity to share their ideas and concerns with the trustees and the two trustees deserve credit for attending what could have been a hostile gathering and showing a willingness to listen and report back to the rest of the board.

Those who attended the meeting resisted the urge to express the anger and frustration which this issue has generated and, as a result, the board has been provided with reasonable comments which trustees can not dismiss or ignore.

And by taking the time and effort to compile the information which should have been part of the board's original decision, Kernohan and Campbell have presented trustees with an option which is more valid than any of the other four.

It's a strange world when butlers make a comeback

Ms. Mitford is right, of course. Kings and Queens and Dukes and Duchesses would make no sense at all in a rational world.

But then, when's the last time anyone took earth for a rational planet?

It's a place where a guy can earn $5 million U.S. a year for throwing a leather-cover sphere past another guy 66 feet away.

This is a place that picked Brian Mulroney to run Canada. Twice.

So perhaps it's no surprise that Ivor Spencer's enterprise is doing swimmingly well, thank yew viddy much.

Mister Spencer runs a school in London, England. A school for butlers.

A person might be forgiven for thinking that butlers had gone the way of the brontosaurus, the dodo and the Edsel. Back in the 1930's there were 30,000 of the creatures in Britain alone, but World War II cost Britain mightily, and butlers -- an expensive appendage during the best of times -- began to disappear. By the 1980's there were fewer than a hundred full time butlers in the United Kingdom.

Now they're coming back, or so says Ivor Spencer -- and he's in a position to know. Mister Spencer's schoolrooms, homes and places "personal servants" with wealthy households all over the world.

It's not a bad gig. About $50,000 a year with free room and board, a car, a clothing allowance and the chance to serve tea to the rich and famous.

But there's a downside. Rich people are not necessarily (more on page 7)

Tax coalition wants issues seperated

Editor:

The following is an open letter to the Haliburton County Board of Education.

Dear Administrators and Trustees;

We urge you to improve upon the work you have done with the Accommodation Plan by taking into account our following four suggestions.

1. Recognizing the plan involves two distinctly separate issues, we suggest they should be dealt with separately. (a) Extra classrooms must be built to address Archie Stouffer P.S. immediate needs. (b) A centralized Junior High School is needed for future student population projected increases.

2. Begin a process of public meetings to focus on short-term and long-term accommodation needs. In a matter of a month or so the issue of gymnasium/library improvements at Archie Stouffer can easily be resolved and the architectural planning of extra classrooms may be started. Then a process of public involvement in the long term effects of Junior High Schooling, and projected student population growth may begin. This will be a process involving an aspect of your Option 4 that has never been discussed publicly in this County before, and that will affect our schools for generations to come.

3. Begin negotiation with the Province, and strike a community task force to organize all future construction needs (starting with the new Archie Stouffer classrooms) as in-County projects. We have the resources, labor and management skills to build our own schools. The effect on this County's economy and self-image will be monumentally positive.

4. Meet with county council and set up a permanent liaison committee. Use this committee to research the trend of our tax-base and relate all budget increases to the ability this County's rate payers have to pay for extra services and infrastructure.

We urge you to interpret your election mandate as a responsibility to make decisions on our behalf after there has been a fair opportunity for all residents to participate in the options that are available.

Yours very truly,
Gary Kenney, John Beachli,
Haliburton County Taxpayers
Coalition

Concerned parents unhappy with handling of school issue

Editor:

This is in response to the February 19 meeting (regarding school accommodation) as concerned parents and taxpayers on the issue of where our young children will be placed to further their educational learning.

We heard options and issues based on extensive research by Bryan Kernohan and Doug Campbell, concerns by others present opposing the Board's decision but no "Constructive" or "Viable" input or support was shown by over 50% of our elected council. We heard our Reeve's refusal of antagonistic comments but none from what he calls "His right hand man".

Considering his absence from the meeting, no "Constructive" or "Viable" support was shown by one trustee who voted in favor of Option Four, only from one who voted against the decision and one who abstained from voting altogether; one of our School Trustees, who failed in her obligation to the taxpayers of Anson, Hindon and Minden by not voting for or against.

I commend those present who expressed their views and hope the meeting didn't interfere with Bern's hockey game.
Concerned Taxpayers and Parents,
Ian and Mary Minto

The old heave-ho

ily nice people — and even when the boss is a 24-carat jerk, the butler is expected to lower his eyes and take it, like a good and loyal servant. A butler is unflinchingly stiff-upper-lipped. His employer can get drunk, shout obscenities, beat the dog and swing naked from the chandeliers but nary a whisper of it will be breathed by his butler.

"We never Talk" says Spencer. "That is your death knell as a butler." Which is not to say that butlers are a bunch of craven, lickspittle doormats shuffling and cringing through life. Some of them have immense responsibilities which include everything from balancing the family budget to ironing the morning newspaper. A butler may not talk back, but he's nobody's punching bag, either. Indeed, their grace under pressure is legendary.

For instance, the butler of Lord Dunsany in County Meath, Ireland. Back in the 1920's Dunsany Castle was raided and ransacked by the "Black and Tans" — troops of the British government. Lord Dunsany's butler stood unmoved as the soldiers reduced the castle interior to rubble. As they trooped out the smashed front door, the butler intoned "Who shall I say called?"

Then there's the New York mansion story told by Coburg,

Ontario's own Marie Dressler in her autobiography My Own Story;

"I was going upstairs to leave my wrap when I noticed a beautifully carved bannister. 'If I don't slide down that,' I told myself, 'I'll die.' There was nobody in sight. I took a deep breath and landed in a heap at the foot of the stairs. Imagine my horror when I saw bearing down upon me the butler, whose frosty hauteur had frozen me when I arrived. He picked me up and dusted me off without a flicker of expression on his correct countenance, meanwhile murmuring cordially, 'Very good miss. Very good indeed. I've always wanted to take a go at it myself.'"

County attempts to hold the line on spending

tion.

Last year the county restrained the road budget and lost $1 million worth of construction as a result. Because money spent on road construction created local employment, as well as a better road system, many councillors see this as an important area of the budget to maintain.

Under the proposed budget, the province will provide nine dollars toward construction for every dollar spent by the county.

By spending just over $1 million on the road system, the county would be able to complete all planned construction, provide $200,000 in casual labour and earn $2.6 million in provincial funding.

One area where the county has decreased spending is the cost of general government, which is expected to decline by $18,000 from last year's level. This is because the county cut the position of payroll clerk last year and is holding the line on most other expenditures.

A 60 per cent increase has been proposed for the Haliburton Highlands Chamber of Commerce.

The county is proposing to give the chamber $52,500, which is the amount the chamber requested to cover its operating deficit.

The economic development department will see a budget cut of 24 per cent. The county plans to spend $37,000 on economic development in 1992 and government grants will provide about the same amount.

Other proposed county expenditures include:

- Waste management - 6.9 per cent increase to $94,000. The government will provide $47,000 toward this area;
- Hyland Crest Home for the Aged - 4.8 per cent increase to $435,000;
- District Health Unit - 3 per cent increase to 113,000;
- Children's Aid Society - no increase, stays at $76,000
- Parks and Recreation - 3.7 per cent increase to $89,000;
- Official Plan - 3 per cent increase to $146,000, of which government grants cover $75,000;
- Land Division Committee - 5.4 per cent increase to $88,000;

Council plans public meeting to get input on draft budget

County councillors promised a more open budget process and they have delivered.

This week, copies of the county's first draft of the proposed budget is available for public inspection at the 10 municipal offices in the county. During the next month, residents will have an opportunity to express their opinion on the 1992 budget during an open meeting.

The schedule for the budget process is as follows:

Wednesday, Feb. 19 - County prepared preliminary budget and each department's estimates.

Monday, Feb. 24 - Public may receive copy of proposed budget at each municipal office or the county office.

Friday, March 6 - Cut off date for people wishing to make a presentation concerning the budget. Each presentation will be limited to 10 minutes.

Tuesday, March 10, - 10 a.m.: Council meets in a closed session to discuss salaries.

1 p.m. to 5 p.m.: Open budget committee meeting. Presentation by each department head. Questions will begin with chairman of each department followed by questions from each committee member and councillors.

7 p.m. to 10 p.m.: Public presentations to budget committee. This will be an opportunity for the public to express their ideas and concerns to the county and will not be a forum for debate.

Friday, March 13 - 9 a.m. to noon: Presentation of revised budget.

1 p.m. to 4 p.m.: Open session for discussion by councillors.

Wednesday, March 18 - Vote at county council meeting to approve budget proposal.

All specific questions from the public referring to county spending must be submitted in writing and, if possible, an answer will be given within three working days.

The Minden Community Policing Committee will be meeting with the owners of businesses in the village this Wednesday upstairs at the municipal office at 7:30 p.m.

Olympic spirit sweeps ASES

Albertville, France and Minden might be several thousand miles apart, but students at Archie Stouffer Elementary School shared some of the Olympic spirit last Friday when they staged their own version of the Winter Olympics. The students divided into teams representing countries from around the world and competed in a variety of events. No Olympic games would be complete without an opening ceremony and the athletes gathered in front of the school to watch the lighting of the torch. Following the ceremony, the teams paraded through town to the annex for a second ceremony before returning for the competitions.

Principal McKay Brydon lit the Olympic torch as the Canadian national anthem played during the opening ceremonies at the main campus of Archie Stouffer.

Laura Tivey and Tim Hemming (seated in sled) led the parade which started at the main school, travelled through town and ended up at the annex.

Although they didn't reach speeds of 100 km/h, competitors tested their skills, and had a lot of fun, in the Crazy Carpet Luge event.

Students used hockey sticks to guide a ball through an obstacle course.

Somerville reacts to conflict of interest changes

by Jerry Grozelle

Is the Ministry of Municipal Affairs going too far with its proposal to increase the accountability of municipal politicians? The members of Somerville Council think so.

"They're moving the KGB from Moscow and putting it in Ontario," said Somerville Reeve John Huke.

The Provincial Ministry of Municipal Affairs has issued a 37-page document detailing its proposal to make local politicians, school board trustees and other advisory board or committee members more accountable and accessible. The proposed amendments also include changes that would make more board meetings open to the public and address the disposition of municipal owned property.

It is the proposed changes to the conflict of interest guidelines that has caused council members to see red.

Under the proposed system, all of the above mentioned politicians, board members and advisory committee members, as well as their spouses and children under the age of 18, would have to fill out a detailed statement of assets, liabilities, sources of income (in excess of $1,000), and the assets, liabilities and income sources of any companies controlled by any of them.

municipal official's home and inspect his records (if a complaint is lodged).

"They are coming down harder on the local government than the provincial or federal governments," he and various board and committee members across Ontario would step down and that "a lot of people wouldn't run again". Those sentiments were echoed by all five members of Somerville Council.

Councillor Clayton Cameron said that he thinks the people who drafted these proposed changes have gone way beyond reason.

"They're asking people to declare things that there's no need to declare," Cameron added that the proposed changes wouldn't have much effect on him. "I'm not in business," he said. "But it will have quite an effect on those who are."

Deputy-Reeve Sue Douglas says she has mixed feelings on the subject.

"If people want to know who has the mortgage on my house, that's fine and dandy," she said. "But it's different for people who own their own business or professional people."

Douglas said that she thinks the procedures for someone to challenge a municipal official with conflict of interest should be stricter. She suggested that if the official is found innocent, the accuser should be responsible for the cost of litigation, not the councillor or the township.

Councillor Gord Carr is afraid that if the amendments are passed municipalities will have trouble filling seats, not only on council but on the numerous boards and committees that are appointed. He also thinks it's unfair that all the assets and liabilities of a municipal official would become public knowledge.

"I'm certainly not in favour of the (proposed) changes. I think it will ruin a

"They're moving the KGB from Moscow and putting it in Ontario," said Somerville Reeve John Huke about the province's proposed changes to the conflict of interest rules.

"As a councillor, I'm not allowed to ask who is on welfare in our township," stated Jack MacDonald. "Yet anyone, for the price of a 42-cent stamp, could have access to all of my private business. That's a complete infringement of my rights and those of my wife and my children under 18 (years of age)."

MacDonald is also adamantly opposed to the clause in the proposed amendments that gives an appointed commissioner the right "at any reasonable time" to enter a said. Any resident of the township would be able to initiate a conflict of interest suit if he or she felt the member had an interest in some Township dealings and hadn't declared a conflict of interest.

"For 42 cents the town nut could make a complaint and wouldn't have to put up a bond or anything," Reeve Huke pointed out.

Huke speculated that if these amendments are passed, as many as a few hundred municipal politicians hand."

The second special item is a one-time $5,000 capital expenditure to purchase office equipment which the chamber currently leases. Moore said spending the $5,000 this year would eliminate $6,000 a year in leasing costs. "It's good business sense," he said.

Last year, the chamber requested $73,000 from the county but was given only $32,700. The drastic cut threatened chamber operations and the county had to provide additional money late last year to keep the chamber office from closing down.

After Moore's budget presentation, chamber president Rhonda Elstone spoke to council about the need for a common vision of the county's future.

"It's time for us to sit down and imagine what life in Haliburton County will be like in the future," she said. "Only if we have a plan, will we have something to work towards. We have to pull down the barriers which stand in the way of this county making progress."

Elstone said the first barrier is the lack of cooperation in the county which is evident in the rivalry between the villages of Minden and Haliburton and the lack of communication with the eastern municipalities in the county.

She said there seems to be some misunderstanding about the role the chamber should be playing in the county.

For 27 cents a day per member, Elstone said the chamber has to run the tourist information booth, run the 1-800 telephone number and promote the county through advertising and participation in trade shows.

"Businesses seem to expect that, at least once a year, someone from the chamber will land on their doorsteps and deliver a customer into their hands," she said. "The chamber promotes Haliburton County outside the county."

She said the chamber plays a role in getting tourists to make their first visit to Haliburton County and many people who shop at local businesses could have been referred to the area, directly or indirectly, by the chamber's efforts.

If every business in the county spent $500 a year to market Haliburton, Elstone said it would total $350,000 and would make Haliburton County a household name in the Golden Horseshoe of southern Ontario which has a population of about five million people.

Elstone said, with the establishment of an economic development office by the county, there should be more coordination to avoid duplication of efforts.

"At time is seems we're trying to do the same thing," she said. "The local pot of dollars is too small." She said the county could be trying to sell Haliburton to "corporate Canada" to attract outside investment dollars.

"Clarify what you want us to do, and what you want the economic development office to do, then we can both get on with our jobs," said Elstone.

After the chamber's presentation, Glamorgan deputy-reeve Glen Madiill congratulated the three directors on their budget proposal.

Kudos also came from Lutterworth deputy-reeve Jim McMahon who has been critical of the chamber. He especially made mention of the chamber's success in getting the county recognized on TV weather reports.

Cardiff deputy-reeve Dan Rivett asked the directors to explain their strategies to get more business in the county to join the chamber. Currently 270 of the county's estimated 700 businesses are members of the organization.

Rivett, who serves on the board of the Bancroft Chamber of Commerce, said many businesses in the eastern part of Haliburton don't believe the chamber knows they are part of the county. With more effort, Rivett said the chamber could double its membership revenue.

In the four years he's been in business, Rivett says he's never received a letter from the chamber asking him to join.

If asked, Rivett said he would join the chamber.

Elstone said the chamber has asked for representation on the board from the eastern part of the county, but has had no success. "It's not because we haven't asked," he said. "We'd love to have a representative from the east."

In the county's initial budget proposal, which is being circulated this week for public input, the chamber is slated to receive $52,500.

HATS OFF!!
 Congratulations to the HHSS Redmen for a great season

Redmen season comes to bruising end

It's all over for the HHSS hockey team.

The Redmen were eliminated from further play-off action when they lost two straight games to the bruising play of Kenner Secondary School of Peterborough.

The Kenner team edged the Redmen 3-2 Wednesday evening at the Dysart arena and took the local team 4-2 Friday night in Peterborough.

The two teams represented two very divergent styles of hockey. While the Redmen, under coaches Ron Yake and Paul Morissette relied on finesse and play-making, the Kenner squad played a strictly physical game. Brawn won, leaving the Redmen with little more than memories of a season that was to have been a building one and was turned into a year in which the team rose to the top of the league.

The Wednesday night game was interrupted by a brawl midway through the second period which resulted in eight players, four from each team, being sent to the showers. Jeff Black, Mark Morissette, Chad Burden and Wyatt Nesbitt were involved in the dust-up which resulted in five minute fighting majors and game misconducts penalties being assessed to each combatant. The misconduct penalty meant the four would not be allowed to play in the second play-off game.

Jonathon Bishop and Bill Bradley were the scorers in Wednesday's game with Derek Wilson and Mike Billings picking up the assist.

Friday evening Bradley and Kevin Morissette provided the scoring drive for the Redmen.

The team was leading 2-1 going into the final five minutes of play. The team had demonstrated that coordinated well-executed plays could over-come muscle. However, the team was missing four of its members and they ran out of steam in the closing minutes of the final frame allowing Kenner to pound three goals past the Redmen netminder.

The Kenner squad again demonstrated its rough and tumble style of play, sending HHSS player Ray Cook to the hospital after a particularly tough check. Ray is home now, after being diagnosed as having sustained a concussion.

"We're proud of the boys," assistant coach Paul Morissette said following Friday's game. "This is the first time we've led the league at the end of the season. They have nothing to be ashamed of." Morissette said the team's style of play stood them in good stead throughout the season. He pointed out the Redmen averaged 8 minutes of penalties per game during the regular season.

"It is unfortunate it has to come to an end like this, especially for the senior members of the team. This was their last chance for high school hockey," Morissette said.

So while the Redmen are hanging up their skates for the last time this season, they can be proud of what they accomplished and the team discipline used to achieve it.

Minden skaters do well at Interclub

On Saturday, February 15 and Sunday, February 16, skaters from nine area clubs attended the annual Kawartha/Highlands Interclub, held this year in Haliburton.

Saturday's events were categories in which the first place skaters will advance to the Eastern Ontario Section Interclub Championships (EOSIC) being held in Lindsay in two weeks. All the singles events involved a combination of figures and freeskate for a total placing.

Some of the lower events required flights because of the number of skaters entered. The top 3 skaters in these flights advanced to finals where they repeated their performance of both figures and freeskate to determine their overall placing. The combined results are as follows:

Pee Wees advance to quarter finals

The Minden OMHA Pee Wees, by the time you read this, will have started their quarter final series with Sutherland, but to get there, they had to defeat Ops in a best of five series.

The first game was at home on Thursday, February 13 and Minden opened with a 5-1 win. The goal scorers were Dennis Woods and Marty Dettman with two goals each and a single marker to Curtis Fielding. Assists went to Dennis Woods with 2 and Jeff Wray and Marty Dettman with one each. As you will note, Dennis Woods and Marty Dettman ended up with a four and three point game respectively.

The next two games were typical play-off hockey that ended up with identical scores, 3-2 victories for Minden. In the Sunday, February 16 match in Ops, Minden opened the scoring with 22 seconds left in the first period when Jeff Wray scored unassisted.

Ops tied the game in the second period but 55 seconds into the third period, Marty Dettman assisted by Jeff Wray put Minden ahead. Less than another minute later, David Raback scored the winner on a rebound of a shot by Tom Bagshaw. But for the remaining twelve minutes in the third period, it was nail biting time as Ops endeavored to tie the game and Minden missed opportunities to add to their lead.

In the third game of the series at home on Tuesday, February 18 the first period ended scoreless. Then in the second, Tom Bagshaw opened the scoring on a nice set up by Dave Raback at 14:25. Then at 12:59, Tom Bagshaw scored again in probably one of the nicest goals Tom has ever scored. He took a pass from Dave Raback just before center ice and proceeded to stick handle past three Ops defenders before shooting the puck into the upper right hand corner of the net past the Ops goalie.

Ops scored at the 11:32 mark but Minden increased their lead back to two goals at 10:05 when Dennis Woods scored the eventual winner with Marty Dettman drawing the assist. Ops scored their second goal with three minutes remaining to make the score 3-2 for Minden. For the rest of the period it was just something else to watch, with Ops trying to tie the score and to add fuel to the fire, Minden received a minor penalty with just over a minute and a half left. At this point, coach John Dettman thought that Ops would tie the game, but the Minden players persevered and came away with the victory and the series. Good work guys, lets keep going.

Novice 'C' finish first

The Ontario Hydro Novice "C" have completed their regular schedule with a 7-4 victory against Ops.

Ops scored first but Minden's Nicholas Mitchell fed Andy Kinsman a nice breakaway pass to tie the game before the first period ended.

The second period broke the game open with six goals being scored. Ben Carpenter scored at 8:52 from Andy Kinsman, then Ben set up Adam Tomlison's goal at 7:37. Ops scored at 6:03. Ben Carpenter added his second goal at 3:32 assisted by Jamie Colliss and then Ops made it close again at 2:44 of the period, but then Ben scored his third goal assisted by Andy Kinsman and Jamie Colliss with just 40 seconds left in the period.

The third period Graham Neave scored on a nice set-up from the corner by Jamie Colliss. Ops scored once more but Ben Carpenter scored his fourth goal of the game to complete the scoring. Great game Ben! Congratulations to all.

The team ended up in first place with a record of 10 wins, 1 loss and 3 ties. They now start a round robin playoff.

The coaches, players and parents would also like to note that Francis Thomas Contracting and Roy Colliss also help with the sponsorship of the team.

We thank them.

Two more ties in men's rec. hockey

If the outcome of the games is any indication of the calibre of play, the next three weeks in the Men's Recreational Hockey League are going to provide some intense action.

The opening series in the round robin play-off resulted in two tied games. The same sequence repeated itself last Monday. Hartwick and Westside have the lead by virtue of a single win and tie each. Home and Times have two ties for second place. Double D and Stamp are third. The play-off is still anyone's game and while Hartwick and Jug City enjoy the lead for the moment, they could be easily unseated with a win by any of the other four teams.

Westside claimed the only win of last Monday night's play with a 6-3 victory over Double D Catering. Dave Hartwick led the attack for the winners with two goals, one unassisted and an assist. Jeff Howe, Jerry Campbell, Barry Shaw and Ed Gibbons shared the other scoring honours with the Howe and Shaw goals being unassisted efforts. Howe and Campbell picked up two assists, with Ron May being credited with a single assist.

Ron Telford was in net for Westside.

The ice was littered with discarded equipment, players and struggling officials midway through the high school game last Wednesday. Four players from each of the Redmen and Kenner Secondary School teams were ejected from the contest as a result of the melee. The visitors won the Wednesday game 3-2 and ended the HHSS hockey season with a 4-2 win Friday evening in Peterborough.

We congratulate all the skaters on their accomplishments of the weekend. They combined skill and fun to make it an enjoyable competition.

The bonus of their work gave Minden top points to win the Club Trophy for the fourth year in a row. It will be proudly displayed in the arena trophy case and the banner will hang for all to see. Good luck to all of the skaters competing at EOSIC in Lindsay. Smile!

32 rinks compete in annual Rockbuster 'spiel

It was tough rounding up 32 teams for this year's Rockbuster men's curling bonspiel in Minden, but in the end, the competition was as strong and as exciting as ever.

The final game of the A draw saw Peter Shilling's rink from Toronto's Tam Heather Curling Club edge their way back to victory in an extra end of play against a Lindsay rink skipped by Bob Colliver.

After eight, very close ends, of curling, it came down to one half miss by Lindsay's Steve Colliver to decide the game. (Steve was throwing final rocks for the team.) Winning the Frontier Motors trophy and a variety of other prizes were Shilling, Chris Mokedanz, Gary Palfrey, and John McLennan.

Winners of the B event and the Prentice Berry trophy was the Cannington rink of Dave Wilson, Doug Hedger, Brian Starr and Tom Rogers.

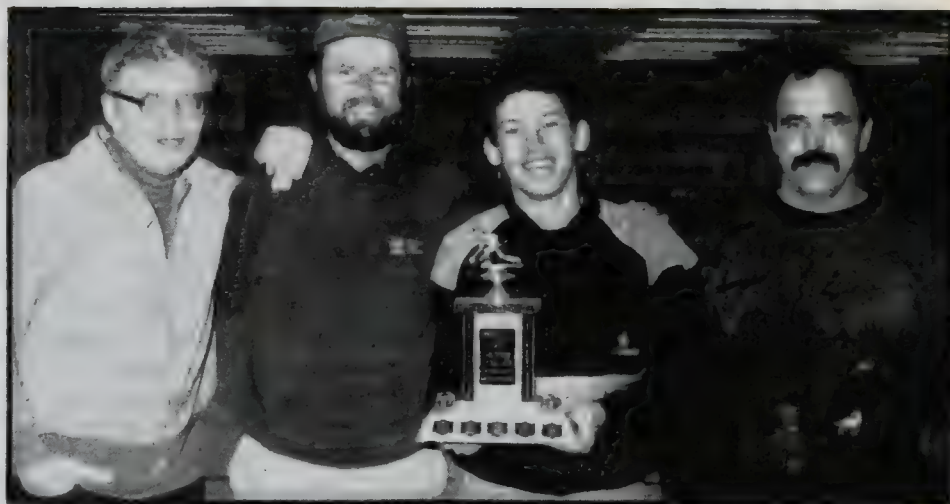

The C event and the Northshore Lawn and Garden trophy was won by the team of Rob Thompson, John Jordan, Paul Shulz and Tom Howat. This rink, which curls out of Thornhill, was representing the "Rat Pond" area of Lochlin during this bonspiel.

In the D event, Minden's rink of Herb Roodenburg, Frank Franzen, Bill Roodenburg and Olivier Lenzoni won the Dollo IGA trophy.

For the first time in the eight year history of this men's bonspiel, a ladies team was allowed to compete. Cheryl Murdoch's rink didn't make it to the prizes, but they did prove they were equal to many of the teams in this 'spiel. They won their opening game against Roodenburg's rink, but lost to some very tough competition in the next two games.

Other curling action to look forward to this season includes the Straw and Stone in-club bonspiel on March 6 and 7. The Sweep into Spring ladies bonspiel will close out the season on March 27.

Winners of the B event and the Prentice Berry trophy, from Cannington, Dave Wilson, Doug Hedger, Brian Starr and Tom Rogers

Local team competes in world's toughest snowmobile endurance test

A trio of snowmobile drivers sponsored by Prentice Berry Limited of Minden and Royal Homes, is the lone Ontario entry in what has been described as the toughest snowmobile race in the world. The event called the Harricana, started Friday and will continue until this Saturday with teams setting out from Ottawa on a 2500 kilometre course which will take them into the wilds of Quebec across the St Lawrence River by ferry and into the state of Maine and province of New Brunswick before ending in Quebec City Sunday for the awards presentations.

The team includes Bill Moffatt, Steve Brand and Ross Lennox, backed up by mechanic Dereck Marchand.

Friday evening the competitors were involved in an obstacle course type competition in Hull Quebec, testing their skills and endurance in conditions which will be similar to those encountered along the trail.

The following day they set off cross-country on a route that will see them go through Mont Laurier in the Laurentians, Parent, Roberval-Lac St. Jean, St. David de Falardeau, Baie Comeau, then across the St Lawrence River by ferry where they will travel in the northern portion of Maine, travel through New Brunswick and then curl back to Quebec City for the final leg of the competition. The competition prizes will be awarded in the provincial capital on Sunday evening.

While on the Harricana course, the team will be required to carry with it a basic survival and emergency supplies. These are required because of the wilderness nature of a great portion of the trail.

The survival gear is transported in a specially designed sled.

As a result of the wilderness nature of the route, the Harricana has been compared to the famous Paris to Dakar automobile rally which cuts across the heart of Africa. While participants in this event may encounter equally desolate conditions as the famous car rally, they will most certainly be experiencing the opposite extremes in temperature.

There are 25 teams taking part in the event. The trio sponsored by Prentice-Berry will be the only entry from Ontario with most of the other snowmobile teams coming from Quebec.

Ready for the toughest snowmobile race in the world, the team sponsored by Prentice-Berry Limited, posed before leaving for Ottawa. Members include, from the left, Dereck Marchand (mechanic), Steve Brand, Steve Berry, Ross Lennox, Paul Prentice and Bill Moffatt.

CUPE, Health Unit two year agreement negotiated

The Haliburton Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health Unit Health Unit and Local 1602 of the Canadian Union of Public Employees have reached an agreement in a two year contract. The new contract will expire in December 1993.

Under the terms of the new contract, the CUPE members will receive a two percent increase in 1992 and another two percent in 1993. This will be paid by an increase on July 1 of this year and another a year later. There will be no change in the hours of work, holidays or fringe benefits.

The CUPE membership includes all employees of the Board of Health except management and supervisory staff, who are non-union, and nurses, who belong to a separate union. Negotiations are underway with both groups.

The agreement was reached through a series of negotiations which were described as "cordial". The negotiating committee included three board trustees, the director of administration and the Medical Officer of Health. The union was represented by the organization's president, two members of the local and a CUPE representative.

lot of local governments if it goes through.

"You know," he said, "when I first started as a councillor, I was proud to tell people I was on council. But that's changing. It's just not a pleasure like it used to be."

With regard to the rest of the document, nobody seemed to be opposed to making the running of the municipality's affairs more accessible by opening more meetings to the public. And the guidelines within which a municipality may dispose of its property seem acceptable.

It is only the proposed changes to the conflict of interest guidelines that have raised the ire of the people who have been elected to conduct the business of Somerville Township.

The Ministry of Municipal Affairs will be accepting written submissions on the subject until the end of March. Somerville Council will be contacting the ministry to voice its objections to the offending parts of the proposed amendments, although some have indicated that they think the ministry will push the changes through anyway.

Saving Sarawak's rainforests

"Andy's in Jail!" a teenager wailed, tears running down her cheeks, "we've got to do something."

She was referring to Anderson Mutang Urud, a remarkable Kelabit of the Dayak people from Sarawak, an island state of Malaysia. Andy has come to Canada twice and captured the hearts of many, especially youth, with his eloquent plea to save Sarawak's rain forests.

His story resonates familiarly for Canada's First Nations and the fate of his people and their land will inform us on what lies ahead for all of us.

The rain forests of Sarawak are part of one of the oldest ecosystems on Earth and may go back 180 million years. (Canada's forests sprouted only 10,000 years ago after the ice age). The long history and isolation of Sarawak's rain forests nurtured a rich bio-diversity that includes 10 per cent of the world's flowering plants.

In a 10-hectare plot in Sarawak, 780 tree species were identified - there are only 700 in all North America. This lush rain forest has also been home to indigenous people since beyond memory.

About half of Sarawak's 1.7 million population are indigenous people belonging to 26 tribal groups who still use the forests to varying degrees. Thirty-five Penan families are the last nomadic hunter-gatherers on the island. But the forests which provide food, medicine, building materials, spiritual connection and ancestral burial sites are disappearing.

Logging in Sarawak is taking place on a staggering scale. The annual allowable cut (AAC) of 2.5 million cubic meters in 1975 over 30 per cent of the total forest area of Sarawak was logged.

Reflections

by David Suzuki

In 1987, 61 indigenous leaders said of government land and forest policy, "This is not development but theft of our land, our rights and our cultural identity." In 1990, the International Timber Trade Organization (ITTO) recommended a reduction to 9 million cubic meters.

That would allow the 180-million-year old forest to live for mere 30 more years. If the cut is not lowered, ITTO said, the forest would be gone in 10. In 1990, Sarawak's official AAC was 18 million cubic meters. But by August last year, satellite photos showed 26 million cubic meters were already cut. At these rates, the primary forest will be gone before 2000 AD.

The soil on tropical rain forests is thin because most of the organic material is immediately recycled from the floor into the canopy. Tiny clearings used only for a year or two enable indigenous people to maintain the diversity and intactness of the forest. Current logging practices in Sarawak cut huge swathes through the forest and drive out its countless inhabitants.

The rush to hack down Sarawak's forest is fuelled by shortsighted greed that ignores indigenous people. The Chief Minister of Sarawak is also the Minister of Forests. The current and former Chief Ministers are relatives who control 50 per cent of Sarawak's timber concessions.

A few individuals amass fortunes, while the tribal people lose their forests. Mutang Tuo, a nomadic Penan, said in 1990, "We are now like fish in the pool of a drying out river bed. If the logging doesn't stop immediately, we Penan will not survive."

Over 95 per cent of all timber is shipped out of Sarawak as raw logs and most go to Japan, the world's largest consumer of wood. As the forests of Korea, Taiwan, the Philippines and West Malaysia have been exhausted, Japan has focused on Sarawak and Indonesia.

Three quarters of Sarawak's hardwood trees sold to Japan end up as disposable plywood for construction. Japan exploits shortsighted or corrupt governments willing to reap a once-only bonanza by selling off priceless (and potentially renewable) resources.

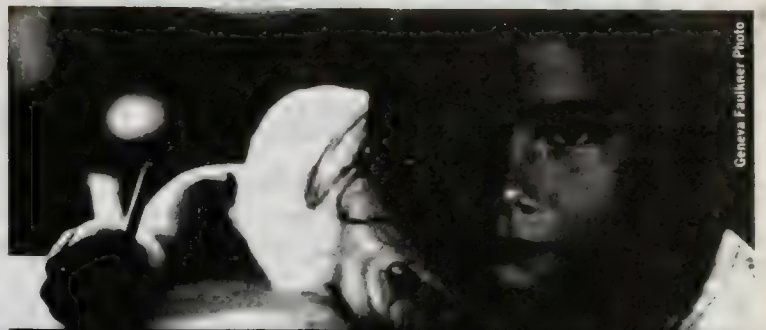

For six years, the native people have been blocking roads to stop the logging machines. They have been beaten, arrested and imprisoned, but struggle on.

In June, the Penan began a blockade that they believe is their last chance to stop further incursion of logging roads, gain recognition of indigenous fights to land and establish a UN Biosphere Reserve for Sarawak's indigenous peoples.

In spite of threats, lack of food and clean water and bribes, the blockade has held firm.

Andy has played a crucial role in supporting the blockade as executive director of the Sarawak Indigenous People Alliance and took MP, Svend Robinson on a tour which included a visit to the blockade.

Following his arrest and indefinite detention, government helicopters and militia have moved in. The Penan need support now. For information, contact the Penan Emergency Relief Fund (604) 683-8220. Youth know that the struggle in Sarawak is a symbol of the battle being fought for a different future from the one we're headed for.

BE A POWER SAVER

Catarina's parents aren't the only ones who are happy they purchased an R-2000 home.

Catarina is very happy too. It's hard for her to explain, but her new home is more comfortable than her old house.

It's a happy house because it's a certified R-2000 home.

R-2000 homes are constructed with a greater attention to detail than conventionally built homes. In addition to being carefully designed to improve energy efficiency, the home is sealed using a continuous air barrier to reduce drafts and unwanted air leakage. The result — a home that is comfortable and energy efficient.

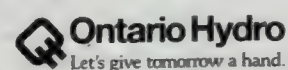

The R-2000 home represents an advanced standard of new home construction, one that is supported by the housing industry, Ontario Hydro, manufacturers and the provincial and federal governments. In fact, because of its energy efficiency, Ontario Hydro offers a $2,000 incentive to purchasers of R-2000 homes in areas where natural gas is unavailable.

Look for the R-2000 Excellence symbol. Each R-2000 home is built by a certified R-2000 builder and tested to ensure it meets strict energy efficiency and ventilation standards.

"It's a more comfortable home to live in."

Lutterworth council wants info on MVA and expresses opposition to the idea

by Jay Kerr-Wilson

Lutterworth council has decided to find out how market value reassessment would affect the ratepayers in the township.

Last Thursday, Reeve Cam Ecclestone suggested that council meet with a representative from the regional assessment office to discuss the issue.

"We're going to have to deal with the issue of market value reassessment, and I'd like to get some understanding of re-assessment as it applies to Lutterworth," he said. "Eventually we'll have to have a public meeting to review this. I know it will be an issue before too long."

County council has been considering a move to market value re-assessment for more than a year. The issue was put to a vote in February 1991 and a majority of councillors supported a deferral to allow more time to study the impact.

Then in November, following the municipal elections, council decided to further delay a decision until after the newly-elected councillors took office in January. The topic will likely surface again before the end of the year if county council decides to deal with the issue in time for the reassessment to be applied to the 1993 tax bills.

Seasonal residents have lobbied against market value reassessment, claiming it would shift too much of the local tax burden on to owners of lakeshore property.

Lutterworth councillor Bill Valentine made it clear he will oppose any move to reassessment.

"In a nutshell, the seasonal people will get screwed right out of their drawers and we'd be ridden out, tarred and feathered," he said. "I won't have anything to do with it."

Deputy-Reeve Jim McMahon agreed with Valentine and said the province is trying to push the county into market value reassessment. "They want us to be the bad guys and do their dirty work for them," he said.

MNR annual appeal

Dog owners asked to keep pets under control

The Ministry of Natural Resources, Minden District, would like to stress to dog owners the importance of maintaining control of their pets.

Snow and cold weather restrict deer movements and in general make winter a demanding time of the year for the deer. They do not need the added stress of being chased by someone's household pet.

Domestic dogs, left to roam free, often travel in groups, and take this opportunity to participate in the death of a deer through injury or exhaustion.

Deer are in their best physical condition before they enter winter as a result of unlimited food supplies. During the winter months, the food resource is reduced, resulting in a gradual decline in the animal's condition.

During the winter months, the deer are the most vulnerable to harassment. As well as receiving leg injuries from crusting snow conditions, a prolonged chase results in high energy consumption for deer already under the stress of winter. This can result in the death of the deer even without being attacked. The females are extremely sensitive to unnecessary exertion and the added stress of pursuit can lead to aborted fawns.

During this critical period for deer, the Ministry of Natural Resources asks the cooperation of all dog owners in protecting the deer herds, by not allowing their pets to roam unattended. The Game and Fish act allows a Conservation Officer to destroy any dog found running deer and provides a penalty to a maximum of twenty five thousand dollars for the owner of a dog found running at large during the closed season for deer or chasing deer.

The public can also assist by reporting any dogs observed chasing deer by contacting the Minden District Office of the Ministry of Natural Resources at 705-286-1521.

Give the deer a break! Please keep your dog tied up.

Revenue Canada makes quarterly payments simpler

If you pay personal income taxes by quarterly instalment, you will find the tax system a lot simpler this year.

In the past, more than one million Canadians, including self-employed workers and 400,000 senior citizens, had to calculate their quarterly payments.

For many, figuring out how to pay every three months was complicated. Not knowing last year's income when you had to calculate your March payment added to the frustration. And if you did not pay enough, you were charged interest.

Starting with this March's payment, you will have an option. Revenue Canada will tell you how to pay, based on your previous income. You will no longer have to figure out the amount yourself.

As long as your cheque is on time, you will not be charged interest or penalties, even if your payments fall short of what you end up owing at the end of the year. If your payments are not enough to cover this year's taxes, you will have up to April 30th of next year to pay before you are charged interest.

from the office of Bill Scott, MP

Of course, you can still do your own calculations. This may be to your advantage if your income will be less this year than in the past, or if you are using more deductions or credits this year than last. However, if you end up owing more than your estimate, you may be charged interest.

Revenue Canada will send you a notice in February for your March 15 and June 15 instalments, and in August and November for your September 15 and December 15 payments.

Farmers and fisherman who make one instalment payment on December 31 will receive a notice in November.

This new system is part of our ongoing work to improve and simplify service to taxpayers.

March is Red Cross Month

Please give.
We do.

Thank you.

Minden W.I. February meeting

Minden Women's Institute meeting was at the Common Room on February 19 with 13 members present. The reports were given and our F.W.I.O. fees have gone up from last year by $50.00.

Irene Moore reports sending 17 cards since January meeting and she thanked us for the Special Collection taken then. She also reported that the Committee are doing work on Tweedsmuir Books with much to be done.

Joyce Hewitt brought memories of the past year with her report of Current Events of 1991.

We set the date of June 6 for Women's Institute Special Day to be at the Library Cultural Centre as afternoon tea with committee Irene Moore, Joyce Hewitt, Jean Cox, and Jean Lacey.

Representative of our branch for Minden 125 celebration is Freda Hulbig. We will invite someone to speak on Patient Advocacy at the meeting. Freda Hulbig as Convenor, read about Mary Sedgwick a nurse-teacher in New Guinea, as to conditions there. Then she read rules for clergy 1877 which was amusing. Thank you Freda.

There are courses at

Ingoldsby UCW treat residents to tea

Saturday and Sunday were quiet except for a few visitors here and there. Sunday evening Rev. John Burgess conducted the chapel service with Alice Jones playing the organ. Its such a peaceful way to end or begin the week. Thanks Rev. Burgess and Alice.

Monday Evelyn Coleman held bible study which we enjoy very much and wish to thank her from our hearts.

Later we held a memories session. Its good, but I can't remember dates.

In the evening Fern Donnelly came to show movies and we appreciate her coming very much. One movie was "Visitors are Coming", the others were "Thailand Past and Present" and a short one, "Hang Ten", better for rock and rollers than 80 and 90.

Senior League

Pastor Murray of Allsaw Pentacostal Church held Tuesday Chapel service and we are thankful to him.

In the evening Judy Johnson took me with her to the Haliburton Mission Circle and a get together after for Valentines Day. It is over six years since I was there.

It was a very important day for Ruby Lewis, as it was her birthday. Everyone wished her a happy birthday.

Wednesday, Katherine Jarvis brought her equipment and demonstrated a strip cutter for making log cabin quilts etc., she also had her computer sewing machine. What a difference from the way it used to be done. Some ladies were quilting at the same time.

Wednesday evening Earle Cooper and Kathy Owns came to entertain us with a musical evening of piano, violin, mandolin and singing. Thank you Earle and Kathy.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mary McKelvey on the death of her son-in-law, Arnold Cowen. Also to his wife Pearl Cowen.

Thursday was a Tea Party, served by the Ingoldsby U.C.W. As a special treat, they served fruit bread made in a machine that mixes, shapes, cooks and cools and makes a loaf of bread, all by itself. Evelyn Coleman told us Monday she has butter from the iron kettle. The ladies were Lorna Hicks, Isabel Sanders and Nancy Braid. Thank you all for the enjoyable afternoon.

Thursday evening we played bingo with Mable Deacon and her daughter, Sue Ripley called. We thank them for a happy evening.

Most of Friday was spent in preparation for the formal dinner which was to be held that evening, followed by an auction. Each resident invited one or two of their family members. We have been preparing the decorations since Christmas. The table settings were in red on white and looked beautiful and were arranged by the Activities Department under Doris Robertson, Linda Fry and Greg Sawyer.

The dinner was deliciously prepared by Lynn Shirley, Dietician and staff, Genette Reynolds, Vera Clarke, Connie Sawyer, Carol Martin and Phyllis Sutherland who all did a super job of serving.

Following the dinner a presentation was held to honour Mary Oliver who has just resigned from ten years as secretary for the Residents Council at the age of one hundred and two. Mrs. Jones, Administrator presented Mary with an appreciation certificate, Gary McKnight, County Administrator presented a pin for Voluntary Service and Winnifred Barnum, Residents Council President, with a token of Residents Councils thanks for her work on their behalf.

By then it was time to start the auction with Doris Robertson as Auctioneer, helped by Linda Fry, Greg Sawyer and Muriel Harrington. There were very good articles for sale (thanks to the generous donors) and everyone joined in with zest, making the sale a very rewarding endeavor and now and in years to come people of this area will be reaping the benefit of what was raised at this dinner and sale.

Around the County Town

by Jeanne Sears (call 286-1538)

Travis Kellett and Corey Davis spent some time Saturday with Grandma Gladys Kellett-Wruth.

Sincere sympathy goes to the families and friends of Arnold Cowen, May Croft (103 yrs.) of Wilberforce, Mary Phail, Percy Drysdale, T.M. Rogers and Mrs. (Rev.) Douglas Miller whose funerals were since last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dart and girls of Oshawa spent the weekend skiing outdoors with mother Pearl Cowen and Harold.

A repeat of last year's popular Lenten Lunches at St. Paul's, Wednesday, March 11 from 12:00-1:00; lunch served after service and teachers and business people might join us and give their personal experiences. This is followed by videos of a special nature.

Some Mindenites who were holidaying in Florida met John and Anne Rockory and the latter wished to be remembered to all their old friends and now live at Elliot Lake.

Brian Kellett and Sally Rogers were weekend guest with Gladys Wruth.

Iris Taylor enjoyed a visit from her son and family from Etobicoke, namely Tom, Deb, Katy, Sarah, Matthew and Don.

At the weekly Euchre Games at St. Paul's last Monday afternoon. Winners were for lone hands: Eleanor Pye, and others Joyce Hewitt, Marie Dennis, Nancy Gayton and Margaret Green. 50/50 went to Elli Langpohl. February 24th, we are having a luncheon at 12:00 noon.

What a great weekend with the Sled Dogs and their owners coming such great distances. The equipment and training must be endless. The village certainly provided the numerous Volunteers and the Municipal workers piled up the snow. Trails were reported to be great and some grooming was done by the Snowmobile Association. The crowd on Sunday filled the Main Street again right up to the trail turn-off. Our village should be happy with the great work done by all and thanks go to all.

Just one birthday to mention at Hyland Crest for March 11 with good wishes going to Fern Weldon.

My recent guests have been Islay and Paul Warburton, Sandra and Randy Gauthier, Logan and Daniel, and Danielle and several others.

All good wishes to these people: Stan Dawson, Ed Turner, John Barclay, Betty Davies, J.O. Jackson Frank Le Maitre, Ann McAdam, Alice Morrison, Fran, Delores Kylie, Bill Campbell, Howard Howarth, Sherri Simmons, and Pearl Simmons. After five months Judy Stevens is now at Royal Victoria Hospital, Barrie, 76 Ross St. postal code L4N 1G4. Good wishes to all these people.

There was a large crowd at Lochlin for Euchre games on February 18th and a good time was had by all. The next games there will be on March 3rd.

Trivia to New York:
My petals unfolding, a beautiful flower

I have an addiction for life
I am addicted to New York.

Call me crazy, yes, New York.

I love it's Mysteries
It's talents, Sinatra, Lanza, Placido etc.

The wonderful talents you can find in New York

This little town shoes, are not for me.

I love the busiest, the magic.

It's something you can never find.

Anyone who has seen Sinatra in concert, as I have
You can never forget it, and that was at the Brooklyn Paramount theatre.

And Mario Lanza was a personal friend and Placido at the Metropolitan.

But you can see it and let your hair down,

And be free, in that somewhere, New York.

It's your chance to make a good first impression! Use simple words, keep your sentences short and be objective. Present a resume that is easy to read, nice to look at and grammatically correct. A resume should not be more than 2 pages long. We have handouts on the chronological and combined resume formats, as well as information on "cover letters".

IN MEMORIAM

Bagshaw, Thomas C: In loving memory of a dear husband, father and grandfather who passed away February 26, 1950.

What would I give to clasp his hand,
His happy face to see,
To hear his voice and see his smile
That meant so much to me.
The garment of his soul passed away.

The spirit and the love light stay.
The echo of his voice, his smile
Just as if they were with us all the while.

Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by his wife Vera, son Tommy, daughter-in-law Marilyn and grandchildren Lisa, Kimberly and Tommy Jr.

IN MEMORIAM

Bagshaw: In loving memory of dear brother Thomas, February 26, 1950, mother Annie, January 5, 1966, father Thomas, December 17, 1968 and brother Alick, February 27, 1990. Though absent, you are very near, Still loved, still missed and very dear.

These days are remembered and quietly kept.
No words are needed, we never forget.

Lovingly remembered, Clara, Alvin and family.

Chilton, Lauretta: In loving memory of a dear sister who passed away February 26, 1987.

Softly the leaves of memory fall
Gently I gather, treasure them all.

Some may forget, now that you've gone.

I will remember, no matter how long.

Lovingly remembered by sister Bernice.

Chilton: In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Lauretta, who passed away February 26, 1987.

Two tired eyes are sleeping,
Two willing hands are still.
For one who suffered far too much

Is resting in God's will.
You never said good-bye to me,

For perhaps it's just as well.
I never could have said good-bye

To one I loved so well.

Always remembered by husband Jack, son John, Phyllis, Tracy and Cheryl.

Everson, Beatrice Mabel: In loving memory of our dear mother and nana who passed away February 26, 1991.

We often think of bygone days
When we were all together.

The family chain is broken now
But memories will live forever.

To us, she has not gone away
Nor has she travelled far.

Just entered God's eternal gate
And left the door ajar.

Sadly missed by Kim, Tim, Tracey, Ken, Leslie, Kristen and Melissa.

IN MEMORIAM

Everson, Beatrice Mabel: In loving memory of my wife who passed away February 26, 1991.

Sadly missed along life's way
Quietly remembered every day.
No longer in my life to share,
But in my heart, you're always there.

Sadly missed by husband Bill.

Deacon, Harold: In loving memory of a dear husband and father who passed away on February 25, 1988.

Loved in life and living yet
In the hearts of those who never forget.

Always remembered by wife Elva and daughter Lois.

IN MEMORIAM

Mintz, Mervel Duncan: In loving memory of a dear son, brother, brother-in-law and uncle who passed away February 28, 1990.

There will always be a heart-ache

And many silent tears,
But always precious memories
Of the days when you were here.

We hold you close within our hearts

And there you will remain,
To walk with us, throughout our lives

Until we meet again.

Sadly missed and ever remembered by Mom, brothers Larry and Andre, sister Gloria and families.

IN MEMORIAM

Mintz, Merv: Died February 28, 1990

Hard to believe

Two years since that day
You were called home

No more time to stay.
Games with the boys

That you cannot play
Oh how I dearly wish

That you'd been able to stay.
Alas,

The decision is not mine.
I know in God's heaven

You are doing fine.
So in your place above

Looking down on us
Know that in my heart

You are ever remembered
Always loved.

Sadly missed by Linda and sons Jeffrey and Kevin.
